DETAILED ACTION

1. All outstanding rejections, except for those maintained below, are withdrawn in light of applicant's amendment filed on 2/15/2007.
2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior office action.
3. The new grounds of rejection set forth below are necessitated by applicant's amendment filed on 2/15/2007. In particular, claims 1-3 have been amended to include weight basis. Thus, the following action is properly made final.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

With respect to claims 1-3, the weight basis of the ratio and amounts fails to satisfy the written description requirement of 35 USC 112, first paragraph since there does not appear to be a written description requirement of weight basis in the application as originally filed, In re Wright, 866 F.2d 422, 9 USPQ2d 1649 (Fed. Cir. 1989) and MPEP 2163. Applicant has not pointed to any portion of the specification, and examiner has not found any support for this phraseology in the specification as originally filed.

5. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

With respect to claim 1, in the emulsions of zirconium oxide and polyvinyl acetate, the amounts of each in the emulsion are not given. Without knowing the amounts of each in the emulsion, it is not clear how much of zirconium oxide and polyvinyl acetate is required to be present. As written, any emulsion with substantial amounts or insubstantial amounts of each can be encompassed.

With respect to claims 2 and 3, they are rejected for being dependent on a rejected claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Quemin (US 2005/0129639).

The rejection is adequately set forth in paragraph 2 of Office action mailed 12/8/2006 and is incorporated here by reference.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed 2/15/2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Specifically, applicant argues (A) that Quemin does not disclose the presently claimed amounts; (B) that Quemin does not disclose an emulsion of zirconium oxide; and (C) that Quemin does not disclose the use of its composition for concrete, mortar, stone, and wood.

With respect to argument (A), given that the amounts of the emulsions are indefinite, it cannot be clearly determined that Quemin does not read on the amounts. The relative amounts of zirconium oxide, liquid paraffin, and polyvinyl acetate resin are 0.5-25 wt %, 0.5-40 wt %, and 0.01-5 wt % in Quemin's composition, whereas, the relative amounts are converted to up to 35.75 wt %, up to 57.2 wt %, and up to 7 wt %, respectively. These amounts read on the presently claimed ratio.

With respect to argument (B), zirconium oxide is an ingredient, wherein the ingredient when mixed with liquid paraffin and polyvinyl acetate forms an emulsion because it is dispersed. Furthermore, Quemin teaches that the solid fillers such as pigments are dispersed in the aqueous phase with surfactants (paragraph 0179), thus forming an emulsion.

With respect to argument (C), the phrase "for concrete, mortar, stone, and wood" is intended use in a preamble and is not given patentable weight. Case law holds that "where a patentee defines a structurally complete invention in the claim body and uses the preamble only to state a purpose or intended use for the invention, the preamble is not a claim limitation." See Rowe v. Dror, 112 F.3d 473, 478, 42 USPQ2d 1550, 1553 (Fed. Cir. 1997).

Conclusion

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
